

Please keep the Code testing in ham radio. I strongly believe that there has to be some sort of hurdle for HF use. If we don't have a hurdle the "riff raff" will be all over the place. I already have seen things change with the 5wpm generals. Most don't know how to build a dipole or understand what WPX is.

Sincerely,
John C. McGrath
W9JCM